NOTES:

When to use this form:

You may make a claim for eligibility using this form at any time. However, if you want to be on the roll for a particular election you must give your claim form to the local government more than 50 days before the election date.

Who should use this form:

This form is for people who:

- own or occupy rateable property in a district but who are not on the Residents Roll for that district, or;
- qualify under clause 12 of Schedule 9.3 to the Local Government Act 1995;
- and want to be able to vote at local government elections for that district.

Who is an occupier:

To qualify as an occupier a person must have a right, under a lease, tenancy agreement or other legal instrument, to be in continuous occupation of that property for at least the next three months.

When the Chief Executive Officer of the Shire of Collie is considering your claim, he or she may ask you for a copy of your lease or tenancy agreement to support your claim. You do not need to provide a copy unless asked.

Silent address:

If having your address on the roll would put your safety or that of your family, at risk, you may ask the Chief Executive Officer not to show your address on the roll. To do this you must give to the Chief Executive Officer a statutory declaration setting out the reasons why you do not want your address shown on the roll.

Rateable property:

If you own or occupy more than one property in the electorate give details of them all. Add additional pages if necessary.

Which ward:

In this form no ward is applicable. The "district" is referred to as "the electorate" and is the Shire of Collie.

Qualification under clause 12:

To qualify under clause 12 of Schedule 9.3 of the Local Government Act 1995, a person must:

- own or occupy rateable property in the electorate;
- have been on the last electoral roll prepared under the Local Government Act 1960 for that electorate;
- and
- have owned or occupied rateable property in the electorate continuously since that roll was prepared.

Nominations:

A nomination must be in writing and be signed by all or a majority of the owners or occupiers of the property (or if the owner or occupier is a body corporate, signed by an officer of the body corporate) in accordance with the Local Government (Elections) Regulations 1997.

If you are a nominee you must give the nomination to the Shire of Collie with this form.

If a body corporate or group of people owns or occupies more than one property in the electorate, a nomination applies to all of those properties.

Duration of enrolment of occupiers:

If you are an occupier and your enrolment eligibility claim is accepted, it will expire in accordance with section 4.33 of the Local Government Act 1995 (this will usually be 6 months after the holding of the second ordinary election after your claim was accepted). If you wish to continue to qualify as an elector after that, you will need to make another enrolment eligibility claim.

Confidentiality:

Your date of birth, telephone/facsimile number and email address supplied in this form will be kept confidential and will be used only by the Shire of Collie and the Western Australian Electoral Commission for the purpose of preparing local government electoral rolls.

Where to send your form:

Address your form to the Chief Executive Officer, Shire of Collie, 87 Throssell Street, COLLIE, Western Australia, 6225. You may send it by post or by email to colshire@collie.wa.gov.au so long as it is capable of being printed in its entirety (including a signature). If you send it electronically you should check that it has been received.
