I'm proud to have lived my whole life in Collie, raising my daughters and watching my grandchildren grow here. After six rewarding years as a councillor, I'm re-nominating to continue serving the town I love. I'm deeply involved in our community through leadership in local sporting clubs, and I believe in giving back to ensure others benefit as I have. Sport is a passion of mine it builds character, connection, and life skills. I want Collie to remain a place where families can thrive, with secure jobs and strong local businesses. Supporting youth employment, attracting new opportunities, and sustaining current enterprises will be key focuses for me. I care deeply about keeping our young people engaged and employed, and I'll work hard to make sure Collie continues to grow as a vibrant, supportive community. I'm also working to ensure our river system is cleaned and maintained for future generations to enjoy.
