You can contact the Shire using these details to request access to or correction of your personal information.

How are we authorised to collect and manage your information?

The Shire collects and manages personal information in accordance with:

- Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing Act 2024 (WA)
- Local Government Act 1995 (WA)
- State Records Act 2000 (WA)

For more information, visit www.collie.wa.gov.au/privacy.

What information do we collect?

CCTV may capture:

- images and video footage of people
- vehicle details, including registration numbers
- the date, time and location of recorded activity

CCTV operated by the Shire does not generally record audio.

Why do we collect this information?

We use CCTV to:

- improve public safety and security
- protect Shire property and assets
- investigate incidents, complaints and damage
- support law enforcement and regulatory activities where authorised by law

How may your information be used or disclosed?

CCTV footage may be accessed by:

- authorised Shire employees and contractors

- law enforcement agencies
- insurers, investigators and legal advisers where necessary
- other parties where authorised or required by law

Storage and retention of information

CCTV footage is stored securely and managed in accordance with the State Records Act 2000 (WA) and other legal requirements. Footage may be kept longer where needed for an investigation, insurance claim or legal matter.

What happens if you do not provide the information?

By entering a CCTV-monitored area, your image may be recorded. If you do not wish to be recorded, avoid entering CCTV-monitored areas where practical.

Your personal information

If you believe the Shire has mishandled your personal information, you can lodge a privacy complaint using the contact details above or by contacting the Shire's Privacy Officer at privacy@collie.wa.gov.au
